

To His EXCELLENCY
The Lord General MONCK,

Capt. General of all the ARMIES and FORCES in ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, and IRELAND, and one of the Generals at Sea.

The humble ADDRESSE of the Officers of your Excellencies Army, in the name of themselves and their Brethren, as it was presented to his Excellency this second day of May, 1660. By us whose names are subscribed.

Although we cannot doubt of your Excellencies confidence in our Affections, and our faithfulness to your Excellency, and that Discipline which by your good and prudent Conduct hath been exercised over us, whereby we are instructed in an intire Obedience to your Excellency; and that Authority which the Lord shall place over us, which we hope we have manifested in our late Actings under your Excellency, against all persons whatsoever in any wayes disturbing the Peace and Settlement of the Nation; although some of them have been our Brethren formerly engaged in the same Cause with us, as also in our late Remonstrance and Addresse to your Excellency; wherein, as it becomes us in duty, we have solemnly declared to acquiesce in what the Lord shall bring forth from the Consultations of this present Parliament.

Yet, in regard your Excellency hath been pleased to communicate unto us, a Letter and Declaration from the Kings Majesty, full of gracious Expressions; we cannot but acknowledge, that the matter of it gives a great measure of quiet to our minds, and more than ordinary expectations of the enjoyment of much Tranquility and Happinesse under his Majesties Government.

The Free and general Indempnity offered by his Majesty, with a Liberty for Tender Consciences, Satisfaction of Arrears, and his readinesse to consent to a Confirmation of Sale, and other Grants and purchases of Estates to all persons now in possession of the same, is that, of which, as we cannot doubt of the real performance, being left by his Majesty to the Parliaments determination, So we believe it is the most probable way to bring the Nations to their desired Settlement.

And we hope to evince to his Majesty and all the World, that we, and all those that have been engaged in the Parliaments Cause, are his Majesties best and most loyal Subjects; And that your Excellency, and the Armies under your Command, have complied with the Obligations, for which they were first raised; for the preservation of the true Protestant Religion, the Honour and Dignity of the King, the Priviledges of Parliament, the Liberty and Property of the Subject, and the Fundamental Laws of the Land.
